Directions: Using the prompts below, please provide constructive feedback to the competitor. Your comments should highlight areas of strength, as well as suggest areas for growth. Please be as specific as possible in your feedback. Use the general feedback space to expand your thoughts on any of the categories below, or to comment on specific moments or lines that stood out. Notes about delivery and gestures are also appropriate.

Importance Is the topic significant? Is the thesis clearly established? Does the delivery assist in establishing the importance of the topic?	There's a clearly established thesis about the lack of one-on-one engagement. The speaker's delivery in the intro and conclusion really aided the speech. The body of the speech could have been more fluid in delivery with greater emphasis when examining the impacts.
Relatability Can the audience relate to the topic? Is the delivery personable? Does the speaker establish how others are impacted by the topic? Is the rhetoric of the speech inclusive?	The point about how instant communication has become was something everyone can relate to. Showing how parents, students, siblings, those in relationships, and coworkers are all impacted helped establish the extensive nature of the problem.
Originality Does the speaker address the topic in a unique, inventive way? Are the supporting examples new and interesting?	The use of a dating game as the vehicle in the speech was unique. Other speeches talk about face-to-face communication and interpersonal relationships, but this one was done in a fresh manner. The examples of breaking up via text were a bit cliché, but the personal story concerning the deaf brother was powerful.

General Feedback:

I enjoyed the speech a great deal and thought the idea was well thought out. The written portion of the speech was exceptional with great supporting details and evidence. While the personal story was incredibly moving, the delivery could have assisted in making it even more impactful overall.

Reason for Decision (Why did this presentation earn the rank you assigned?):

If not for the delivery issues in the body of the speech, the speaker would have been ranked first. Good job!
